

Welcome to EDUC 219

Schooling for Diverse Populations in American Society

Table of contents

1	Weekly schedule	1
2	Continue here	7

Welcome to the companion website for EDUC 219-01: Schooling for Diverse Populations in American Society at Howard University, taught by Professor Nathan Alexander.

This website provides supplementary course materials, module resources, selected documents, and links for our work throughout the semester. Canvas is the official course site for announcements, assignment submissions, discussion boards, due dates, and additional course materials.

Visit the EDUC 219 Canvas site

1 Weekly schedule

The schedule may be adjusted as the semester develops.

Week	Dates	Modules & activities	Assignments & readings
1	Aug. 17 and 19	Module 0: Intro to EDUC 219 Icebreaker, introductions, and overview of EDUC 219 Module 1: Schooling for Diverse Populations in American Society Defining key terms and central questions	Syllabus questionnaire — due Wed., Aug. 19Community agreements — due Sun., Aug. 23 Media: Crash Course Black American History #21 and #33

Week	Dates	Modules & activities	Assignments & readings
2	Aug. 24 and 26	Module 1: Schooling for Diverse Populations in American Society Historical periods and key events; Woodson and Black education Activity: Historical timelines, from physical to digital timelines	Discussion Post 1: Select a Plessy v. Ferguson or Brown v. Board of Education trial group and identify historical questions, events, people, or institutions that may help frame the group's research — due Wed., Aug. 26 Draft philosophy of education statement — due Sun., Aug. 30 Reading: Givens (2021), Introduction
3	Aug. 31 and Sept. 2	Module 2: Philosophies of Education Historical traditions and key actors Activity: Philosophy of education thematic analysis in groups of four to five	Quiz 1 — in class Wed., Sept. 2 Reading: Givens (2021), Chapter 1
4	Sept. 7 and 9	Module 2: Philosophies of Education Contemporary discourses, critical perspectives, and implications for teaching Activity: Excursion 1, to be determined as a group	No class Mon., Sept. 7: Labor Day Updated philosophy of education statement — due Sun., Sept. 13 Reading: Givens (2021), Chapter 2

Week	Dates	Modules & activities	Assignments & readings
5	Sept. 14 and 16	Module 3: Colonial Education and the Early Republic Indigenous education, colonial schooling, slavery, literacy, and early public educationActivity: Archival research presentations and findings	Discussion Post 2: Trial-group historical context. Identify and explain historical conditions, events, or sources that provide necessary context for your group's selected trial — due Wed., Sept. 16 Reading: Givens (2021), Chapter 3
6	Sept. 21 and 23	Module 4: Common Schools, Expansion, and Exclusion Common-school movement, immigration, normal schools, and unequal accessActivity: Archival research presentations and findings	Quiz 2 — in class Wed., Sept. 23Discussion Post 3: Trial-group archival evidence. Share and analyze primary-source evidence that can support your group's historical, legal, or educational interpretation of the selected trial — due Wed., Sept. 23 Reading: Givens (2021), Chapter 4
7	Sept. 28 and 30	Module 5: Reconstruction and the Law Emancipation, Freedmen's education, public education, and citizenshipActivity: Archival research presentations and findings; trial-group research coordination	Continue archival research and trial preparation as assigned on Canvas Reading: Givens (2021), Chapter 5

Week	Dates	Modules & activities	Assignments & readings
8	Oct. 5 and 7	Midterm examination week Midterm review session via Zoom on Monday; time to be determined	No class Mon., Oct. 5: Midterm exam review on Zoom Midterm examination — in class Wed., Oct. 7 Review: Modules 1–5, course readings, historical timelines, archival research, and related class materials
9	Oct. 12 and 14	Module 6: Progressive and Vocational Education Review of midterm solutions and results; questions and answers	No class Mon., Oct. 12: Mental Health Day and Homecoming WeekQuiz 3 — in class Wed., Oct. 14Discussion Post 4: Trial-group arguments and perspectives. Develop an evidence-based account of competing legal, historical, and educational perspectives relevant to your selected trial — due Wed., Oct. 14 Reading: Givens (2021), Chapter 6 and Conclusion

Week	Dates	Modules & activities	Assignments & readings
10	Oct. 19 and 21	Module 6: Progressive and Vocational Education Activity: Trial-preparation groups; in-class run-throughs and task coordination	Trial-preparation group update: identify needed evidence, documents, roles, and next steps for your selected trial — due Wed., Oct. 21 Reading: Introduction to Gholdy Muhammad's Genius and Joy curriculum
11	Oct. 26 and 28	Module 7: School Segregation and Civil Rights Activity: Trial-preparation groups; in-class run-throughs and task coordination	Trial-preparation group update: refine sources, arguments, witness or participant roles, and trial materials — due Wed., Oct. 28 Quiz 4 — in class Wed., Oct. 28 Reading: Muhammad (2023), Genius and Joy curriculum
12	Nov. 2 and 4	Trial reenactment and analysis: Plessy v. Ferguson	Trial materials and group responsibilities as assigned on Canvas Reading and research: Plessy v. Ferguson case materials, archival documents, legal annotations, and group-selected historical news sources

Week	Dates	Modules & activities	Assignments & readings
13	Nov. 9 and 11	Module 8: Pedagogy and Educational Opportunity Activity: Trial review and trial-preparation groups	Quiz 5 — in class Wed., Nov. 11 Discussion Post 5: Trial-group educational implications. Explain how your selected case and its historical context inform contemporary questions of educational opportunity, equal access, teaching, learning, and policy — due Wed., Nov. 11 Reading: Muhammad (2023), Genius and Joy curriculum
14	Nov. 16 and 18	Trial reenactment and analysis: Brown v. Board of Education	Trial materials and group responsibilities as assigned on Canvas Reading and research: Brown v. Board of Education case materials, archival documents, legal annotations, and group-selected historical news sources
15	Nov. 23	End-of-term synthesis Schools in American Society from 1930 to the present	Final trial materials and notes — due Fri., Dec. 4 Review and synthesis: Course readings, archival timeline/database, trial reenactments, philosophy of education, and course materials

2 Continue here

- Read the course overview
- Review assignments and grading
- Visit Canvas for submissions, discussions, announcements, and current deadlines