

Welcome to EDUC 219

Schooling for Diverse Populations in American Society

Table of contents

1 Weekly schedule	1
2 Continue here	6

Welcome to the companion website for EDUC 219-01: Schooling for Diverse Populations in American Society at Howard University, taught by Professor Nathan Alexander.

This website provides supplementary course materials, module resources, selected documents, and links for our work throughout the semester. Canvas is the official course site for announcements, assignment submissions, discussion boards, due dates, and additional course materials.

Visit the EDUC 219 Canvas site

1 Weekly schedule

The schedule may be adjusted as the semester develops.

Week	Dates	Module and learning focus	Key dates and materials
1	Aug. 17 and 19	Module 0: Introduction to EDUC 219 Course introduction, community building, and an overview of schooling in American society	Syllabus questionnaire — due Wed., Aug. 19 Community agreements — due Sun., Aug. 23 Media: Crash Course Black American History #21 and #33

Week	Dates	Module and learning focus	Key dates and materials
2	Aug. 24 and 26	Module 1: Schooling for Diverse Populations in American Society Key concepts, historical questions, and the relationship between schooling, race, power, and opportunity Activity: Historical-timeline inquiry	Draft philosophy of education statement — due Sun., Aug. 30 Reading: Givens (2021), Introduction
3	Aug. 31 and Sept. 2	Module 1: Schooling for Diverse Populations in American Society Historical traditions, major thinkers, and competing purposes of education Activity: Philosophy-of-education thematic analysis	Quiz 1 — in class Wed., Sept. 2 Reading: Givens (2021), Chapter 1
4	Sept. 7 and 9	Module 2: Philosophies of Education Contemporary and critical perspectives; implications for teaching, learning, and liberation	No class Mon., Sept. 7: Labor Day Reading: Givens (2021), Chapter 2

Week	Dates	Module and learning focus	Key dates and materials
5	Sept. 14 and 16	Module 2: Philosophies of Education Unequal access, emancipation, citizenship, and public education Guest speaker: Dr. Shannon R. Waite on education and liberation	Philosophy of education statement — due Sun., Sept. 20 Reading: Givens (2021), Chapters 3
6	Sept. 21 and 23	Module 2: Philosophies of Education Freedmen's education, the law, racial exclusion, and the foundations of segregated schooling Activity: Archival research and trial-group coordination	Quiz 2 — in class Wed., Sept. 23 Archival research and trial preparation
7	Sept. 28 and 30	Module 3: Common Schools, Expansion, Exclusion, and Reconstruction From Reconstruction to segregation: historical evidence, legal change, and the groundwork for Plessy v. Ferguson Activity: Archival research presentations	Continue archival research and trial preparation as assigned on Canvas

Week	Dates	Module and learning focus	Key dates and materials
8	Oct. 5 and 7	Midterm examination week Midterm review and synthesis of Modules 1–3	No class Mon., Oct. 5: Midterm review on ZoomMidterm examination — in class Wed., Oct. 7Review: Modules 1–3, readings, historical timelines, archival research, and course materials
9	Oct. 12 and 14	Module 4: Progressive and Vocational Education Progressivism, industrial education, vocational schooling, and competing visions of educational reform	No class Mon., Oct. 12: Mental Health Day and Homecoming WeekQuiz 3 — in class Wed., Oct. 14Reading: Givens (2021), Chapter 6 and Conclusion
10	Oct. 19 and 21	Module 5: Schooling Before the Civil Rights Movement Segregation, migration, educational inequality, Black educational thought, community organizing, and the historical context for Plessy v. Ferguson and Brown v. Board of Education Activity: Trial-preparation groups	Trial-preparation group update — due Wed., Oct. 21Reading: Introduction to Gholdy Muhammad’s Genius and Joy curriculum

Week	Dates	Module and learning focus	Key dates and materials
11	Oct. 26 and 28	Module 5: Schooling Before the Civil Rights Movement Legal segregation, community resistance, educational organizing, and the historical context for Plessy v. Ferguson and Brown v. Board of Education Activity: Trial-preparation groups	Quiz 4 — in class Wed., Oct. 28Trial-preparation group update — due Wed., Oct. 28 Reading: Muhammad (2023), Genius and Joy curriculum
12	Nov. 2 and 4	Module 6: School Segregation and the Civil Rights Movement From Plessy to Brown : legal strategy, school segregation, civil-rights organizing, and educational opportunityActivity: Final trial preparation, evidence review, and role coordination	Trial materials and group responsibilities as assigned on Canvas Reading: Muhammad (2023), Genius and Joy curriculum
13	Nov. 9 and 11	Trial reenactments and analysis: Plessy v. Ferguson and Brown v. Board of Education Historical, legal, and educational analysis of segregation and desegregation	Trial materials, evidence packets, and group responsibilities as assigned on Canvas Reading and research: Case materials, archival documents, legal annotations, and group-selected historical news sources

Week	Dates	Module and learning focus	Key dates and materials
14	Nov. 16 and 18	Trial debrief and course synthesis Connections among law, schooling, educational opportunity, and students' philosophies of education	Quiz 5 — in class Wed., Nov. 18Complete any remaining trial materials or course requirements as assigned
15	Nov. 23	Course closeout and synthesis Final reflection, trial debrief, and connections across course themes	Final trial materials and notes — due Fri., Dec. 4Bring materials needed to complete final course requirements

2 Continue here

- Read the course overview
- Review assignments and grading
- Visit Canvas for submissions, discussions, announcements, and current deadlines